Dedication

TO OUR MOTHERS

SOMEBODY'S MOTHER

'The woman was old, and ragged, and gray,
And bent with the chill of a winter's day;
The streets were white with a recent snow,
And the woman's feet were aged and slow;

"She's somebody's mother, boys, you know,
For all she's aged, and poor, and slow;
And some one, some time, may lend a hand
To help my mother—you understand?—
If ever she's poor, and old, and gray,
And her own dear boy is far away."

"Somebody's mother" bowed low ner head,
In her home that night, and the prayer she said
Was: "God, be kind to that noble boy,
Who is somebody's son, and pride and joy."

Faint was the voice, and worn and weak,
But the Father hears when His children speak;
Angels caught the faltering word,
And "Somebody's Mother's" prayer was heard.

Dear Young Friends,

I congratulate you upon the success you have had thus far in living and learning life. And now you are graduating into a world which will teach you more than you have already come to know. With an open mind, a cheerful and courageous heart and continued good health to keep you meeting life's challenges as they come, each of you will surely become what you can be.

Sincerely yours,
Sherman D. Scruggs
President

To the Senior Class of 1954:

This splendid Yearbook represents the success of cooperative efforts, and is an example of what may be achieved through the medium of people working with people.

It is to be hoped that each of you will recall in later years, the lesson implicit in your preparation of this publication: that one person alone can do little; but that through cooperative efforts of the followers, and effective leadership of those charged with responsibility, much may be achieved

Congratulations and best wishes to the Class of 1954.

Earl E. Dawson
Dean of the College

Dear Students,

Lincoln University High School is doing its job of training citizens for the world to come. We hold high the ideals of democracy. We believe that we can attain these ideals best by living and working in a democratic school. Students are expected to do their part and accept the responsibility for creative productions, student government and student participation in cultural activities.

This yearbook is an example of such participation by students. It will contain many fine memories in years to come. Let me congratulate all of those who have had a part in this production.

Sincerely yours,
James H. Seeney
Principal
