Bobby,
It really has been great knowing you. You are just about the nicest person I know. I sure am glad we have some classes together this year. Always remember those good old band practices. I know this year will be great, but let's make it the greatest.

FOREWORD

In the 1964 MARCULLUS we make a "MOVE". We leave the old JC building on Miller Street and move to a new ultra-modern structure at the corner of Lafayette and Union Streets. We leave old JC with a tear, remembering all the wonderful things we have experienced there. But we move with the idea of creating new traditions and having many new and happy experiences. At the new building we have all the modern facilities for an improved learning atmosphere. So may this "MOVE" be one you will long remember every time you turn these pages, now and in future years.

DEDICATION

CARL E. BURKEL
Vocal Music

We on the 1964 Marcullus staff are honored to dedicate this book to Mr. Burkel. He has done outstanding work in the field of vocal music, such as the Choir and the Chorale. His talents have been again exemplified in his direction of our operettas, South Pacific, Annie Get Your Gun, and Oklahoma. His never ending smile greets us when ever he is with us. It is a great pleasure to salute Mr. Carl Burkel with the dedication of the 1964 MARCULLUS.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council, under the leadership of Herb Taylor, was active. We met before school started to plan early Homecoming activities. Several money-making projects, including a pancake supper and a hootenanny were sponsored by the Council. We also sold A.F.S. shares. We sponsored the Christmas dance and the basketball Sweetheart activities. A big moment in our year was the move to the new school, where the Student Council participated in the first flag raising ceremony. We also served as guides at the first open house in March. Highlighting the year was our election as M.A.S.C. President at the convention in Columbia. Another new Student Council activity was our exchange program with Raytown South High School. To round out the year's activities we honored the faculty with a picnic in May. The Student Council is sponsored by Mrs. Martha Hicks and Mrs. Helen Powell.

BAND

Atten-shun! JC's widely acclaimed band marched through one of the most hectic seasons in its history this year. Aside from royally entertaining the avid football fans at each home game, they were the first high school band to be invited to the annual Southeast Missouri Band Festival in Jackson. They also participated in the Homecoming and Christmas parades.

The crowds were delighted at the Winter Concert, guest conducted by the renowned Alfred Reed. In April the band department sponsored a thrilling concert by the world famous Navy Band.

The Cadet Band attended Band Day in Columbia and received a II rating at the district Music Contest in Rolla.

The band's last performance was a real "tear-jerker" — Commencement.

ORCHESTRA

The Jefferson City Senior High School Orchestra began a successful year with a concert on Dec. 6. Then on December 8 the orchestra presented a concert at an assembly for the student body.

The orchestra was engaged to play at a banquet for the nations of the Common Market. At this banquet the representatives of these nations were honored with the presence of Gov. John M. Dalton.

Dinner music was provided by the orchestra for the state social studies convention, which was held on April 4.

Various members of the Senior High Orchestra have participated in the Lincoln University Orch. and have also played for the Daughters of the American Revolution, the Morning Music Club, and other organizations and functions.

The Stage Band, under the leadership of Mr. Don Verne Joseph, was quite active this year. Getting started early, they attended the Stan Kenton Clinic at Denver Colorado in August. When school started they got down to business here by touring the grade schools, holding an assembly program with the varsity band, giving concerts at Freshman High and Simonsen, and playing with Woody Herman's Band at the Lincoln Field House. Other highlights were the State Dance Band contest at Boonville and the first J. C. Jazz Festival featuring our stage band and the Jefferson City Business Mens Band. All in all, it has been a very successful year.

CHOIR

Under the direction of Mr. Carl E. Burkel the 1963-64 Advanced Choir and Chorale had a very successful season. The first performance was given at the Thanksgiving Assembly. At Christmas the Chorale did a total of eight performances for various organizations throughout the city. The combined choirs also gave outstanding presentations at the 26th annual Capitol Caroling and the Christmas Assembly. After two months' practice and hard work (plus Mr. "B"'s patience) the operetta, South Pacific, was presented on March 13th and 14th. Everyone considered it a huge success. The choir performed at the Easter Assembly and also at the Spring Concert, where the Chorale served as honor guard for the Marcullus Queen and attendants. Various programs were given throughout the city's schools, and the season closed with a very beautiful presentation at the Baccalaureate Service.

The American Field Service Club had an active year. In August, soon after Edgardo Fuster, our AFS student from Chile, arrived, we had a picnic so that we could get acquainted with him.

One afternoon in December we met in the cafeteria to help Ed celebrate his birthday. We had a big birthday cake and gave him a present — a sweater.

In April the club sponsored the AFS assembly. We invited three AFS students from other Missouri schools and they, along with Ed, made up the panel. While these students were here, we had a pot-luck supper so that we could all have a chance to talk with them.

In June, shortly before Edgardo left for home, we had a going-away party. At this time we presented him with a class ring. We felt that our school had been fortunate to have had Edgardo with us this year.

INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS CLUB

First Row, Left to Right: L. Jenkins, J. Schaefer, C. Isaak, M. Kratochvil Secretary-Treasurer, S. Jones, J. McDaniel. Second Row: D. Hudgins, V. Coleman, G. Ernst, C. Quinn, J. Perkins, P. The International Relations Club has been very active this year with sponsors Mr. Watt and Mr. Riche. We heard several speakers on such topics as Communism and the British government. Then we traveled to Columbia to hear John K. Galbraith speak on India. To end the year the club took a trip to St. Louis to hear a speech on the Latin American revolution. This trip was highlighted by a little trip off the regular route into axle-deep mud. Thus the year was brought to an exciting finish.

SCIENCE CLUB

The Science Club has been very active this year. Speakers and demonstrations have been varied to include chemistry, physics and biology.

The club has taken an active part in the Greater Jefferson City Science Fair not only by contributing projects, but also supplying guards and helping with physical arrangements. They also sponsored a concession stand which has helped to provide the club with funds.

The yearly trip was made to Kansas City in February. This included a tour of the Mid-West Research Institute and Linda Hall Library.

The last event of the year was a field trip made up of the following groups: entomology, geology, aquatic life, forestry and soil conservation. Leaders of these groups are professional people from the Conservation Commission, the Agriculture Department, State Geologists and a Cole County Extension Agent. A picnic concluded this meeting.

MATH CLUB

The Math Club has met eight times this school year, one meeting per month with the exception of January. In each meeting there was a short business meeting and then a program concerned with mathematics. These programs were presented by members of the Math Club, Mr. Joe Wise of the Department of Education, and by Mr. Wilson, teacher of data processing here at Senior High. These programs included the oddities of math careers in math, truth tables, and data processing.

Among the other activities of the Math Club was entering a float with the F.T.A. in the Homecoming parade and having a picnic in the spring when the new officers were installed.

First Row, Left to Right: V. Coleman, P. Patterson, V. Steinman, M. Bemboom, J. Schaefer, G. Goldammer. Second Row: G. Trachsel, R. Englebrecht, T. Hendrix, V. Robertson, G. Hoffman, J. Hicks, S. Goldammer, G. Loesch.

Ferguson, G. Gaertner, N. Franklin, V. Boss, J. Simpson. Third Row: B. Jordan, M. Lindersmith, G. Fox, K. Miche, B. Bonnot, S. Finley.

Emphasis has been placed in learning more about art through experience and consultation this year. Instead of having a homecoming project, the club members decided to devote their time and talents to all other floats. The Art Club with the Police Department again created a float for the Christmas parade. In February the club heard a local commercial artist speak.

A picnic was held in April and in May the club took a trip to Springfield to see Watercolor U.S.A., and the town, and tour the S.M.S. Art Department.

Les Esprits Français held its initiation early in the year at the home of the president, Geneva Sugarbaker. During the Christmas-season, a program and exchange of gifts highlighted the December meeting.

The highlight of the year was the French Club's Mardi Gras Banquet at which the Spanish and Latin students were guests. It was held in February.

In order to raise funds for these various activities the club sponsored two candy sales and ran the concessions at two track meets in the spring.

To wind up the year's activities, Mrs. Marion Truesdale, club sponsor, was hostess to a spring barbecue at her home. Officers of the following year were elected.

LOS AMIGOS

LOS AMIGOS

Los Amigos has completed another year of service at J.C. This year we were privileged to have as our first honorary member, Edgardo Fuster, J.C.'s foreign exchange student. From Ed and Mr. Dan Saults, the guest speaker at our February meeting, we learned a great deal about South American customs and traditions.

One of the most enjoyable events of the year was our traditional Spanish dinner to which all club members brought a Spanish dish and joined in the fun of eating. This year Los Amigos sponsored the Spanish movie, El Rio Escondido, for the entire school.

To complete a most successful year, Los Amigos held its annual barbeque for all 106 members.

This year the Pancho Villa Chapter of the Spanish Honor Society was reorganized by the Spanish department. To be eligible for membership, students must maintain an E- average in Spanish for two quarters. Because it was formed so late in the year, the activities were very limited. However, next year many activities are in the planning stage.

The Senior High Latin Club started out the year preparing its new members for initiation which was held in October. Its present members voted to start a Junior Latin Club for the Freshman Latin classes. They would be affiliated with the Senior High Latin Club but have their own officers and meetings.

In the September meeting plans were made to enter a float in the Homecoming parade.

In April 43 members of the junior and senior Latin Clubs attended the State J.C.L. Convention held in Columbia. Bill Iuen, the president of the Senior High Latin Club, gave a report to the convention about the last National J.C.L. convention in Kansas. Stan Leslie won second place in a Latin history contest.

The Latin Club took its part in the Language Festival which was held in April, by putting on a skit, "A Roman Holiday."

The Latin Club's year was highlighted by the annual Latin Club Banquet held in the Senior High School cafeteria, May 8.

In the final meeting May 15 officers for the following year will be elected.

The Jayettes, composed of about 350 girls, attended all of the home basketball and football games and quite a number of out of town ones. Pep assemblies during or after school increased student support of J.C. sports.

During the football season they put in many long hours in preparation for Homecoming. They built a float which won second in parade competition, marched in the parade, and put on a half-time show in cooperation with the band. Queen Gena and her court were presented at the bonfire, the game, and the Homecoming Dance.

During the winter months the Jayettes built and entered a float in the Christmas Parade.

The Jayette Council, consisting of a representative and a secretary from each grade and the Jayette officers, sponsored a Barn Dance and elected Ed Fuster as King of their Corny Court.

The Jayette Barbecue honoring the lettermen was held at McClung Park. At the dance afterwards the new officers were presented and "Winners Wonderland" was sung in honor of the undefeated 63-64 football team. The Jayettes closed the year's activities by singing "On Jeff City" and the "Alma Mater".

Freshmen Jayettes sit together at Homecoming assembly.

RED AND BLACK

'63-'64 has been a busy year for the Red and Black staff.

Four eight page papers were published, including a special issue featuring our new building. Also, there were eight page issues for Homecoming, Christmas, and the end of the year.

John Lloyd entertained the staff with a Christmas dinner at his home in mid-December. The last day before Christmas vacation a reception was held for last year's staff.

Again this year the Red and Black received a number 1 rating. Also, there were two staff members who won honors in a national contest, and four members who won state honors.

The year ended with a barbecue at Mark Schreiber's home.

QUILL AND SCROLL

Quill and Scroll is the national honor society for high school journalists.

During the Christmas season the club held a dinner party. In February an initiation was held in which twenty-one new members were accepted for membership.

In the last issue of the Red and Black, Quill and Scroll held a creative writing contest and winners were published.

HONOR SOCIETY

Scholarship, leadership, character, and service are qualities possessed by all members of the National Honor Society. Students, nominated by faculty members after two full semesters at J.C., must carry four solids a year and have at least an 8.0 grade average to be eligible for membership into this organization. It is believed by the Honor Society that it is the well rounded student of today, who makes the good citizen of tomorrow. Thus emphasis is placed on the student who is able to participate in our extracurricular activities program, and the same time maintain a high scholastic record.

The 1963-1964 school year marked what was perhaps the most eventful year in the history of the Senior High School Chapter of the National Honor Society. On February 22, our chapter was host to over 500 delegates and sponsors from 60 schools in Missouri for the third annual Missouri State Honor Society Convention. The proposed state constitution was adopted and J.C. was elected to the position of State President for the forthcoming year, thus making J.C. the first president of the Missouri Convention of the National Honor Society. Next Spring our chapter will again host the state convention.

Our chapter also participated in many other activities. We entered a float in the Homecoming parade, held a formal initiation for new members, co-sponsored a college orientation night with the guidance department, held a spring banquet honoring the members and their parents, and installed new chapters at Freshman High and Linn High School.

Technicalities prevented printing of the Honor Society picture.

The National Honor Society had a banquet for the members and their parents on April 24.

LETTERMEN'S CLUB

The Lettermen's Club is not like other clubs in the school. It is definitely a service club. Its main function is to help at all the different sport activities.

Mr. Adams, vice-principal, assigns the boys different jobs at the games. These jobs include ushering, keeping the spectators seated and in order, spotting for the broadcasters, keeping records, and running the scoreboard. Not only do they work at varsity games but also they work at all eighth, ninth, tenth, and B-team games.

The club winds up the year with a barbeque.

JC PLAYERS

The main function of the J.C. Players throughout the school year is presenting the famous productions every fall and spring. This fall several players were involved in the drama, The Admirable Crichton. In the spring the club presented the play, Don't Unplug the Teacher, written by Mrs. Irwin. Members not only act in these plays, but they also handle all facets of production.

JC PLAYERS OFFICERS: Joyce Anderson, President; Paulette Greene, Vice-President; Martha Baker, Sargeant-at-arms.

The J.C. Players were active in several other functions throughout the year. A new idea in drama was performed. Early in March two one-act plays, "Brothers-in-Arms" and "Sunday Costs Five Pesoes" were presented in theatre-in-the-round. Then on March 21 the organization went to St. Louis to see The Crucible, by Arthur Miller at the American Theater.

J.C. Players closed the year by electing officers for the 1964-65 school year.

F.T.A. was caught up in the homecoming activities as was everyone else and began the year by entering a float jointly with the Math Club in the homecoming parade. Shortly after this we sent the president of the club to the state F.T.A. convention in St. Louis; the vice president also attended.

Our next activity centered around a few money-making projects—selling programs at a football game and homemade candy at school. For a Christmas project we sent poinsettias to Memorial Hospital.

Our next project became known as "Operation Toothbrush." We sold toothbrushes door to door to earn money to give a hundred dollar scholarship and to help the A.F.S. program. The climax of our year was our "Teacher Appreciation Week", in which we did small jobs to let the teachers know that they're appreciated. The week ended with a reception in honor of all the teachers. Our last activity of the year was a club trip.

In September the C O E Club was organized with 24 students, and officers were elected for the school year. The Club voted to join the State C O E Club. For the first time, the retail class voted to join the State and National Association called DECA (Distributive Education Clubs of America).

In October most of our members attended the State C O E and DECA business meetings held at the Jefferson Building.

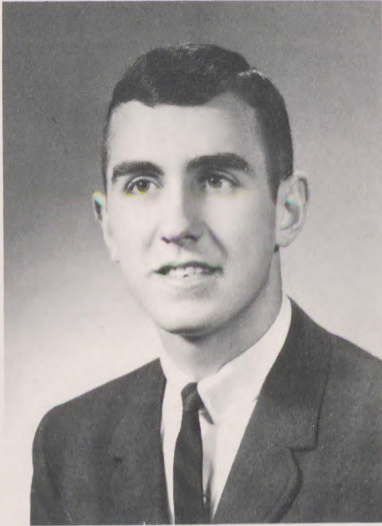

In March, 7 students attended the Annual State Leadership Conference held in Columbia. Business meetings, social activities and various contests made for two busy days.

In April the students entertained their employers with the annual Employers Appreciation Banquet held at Sunset Steak House.

In addition to business meetings held periodically, social activities included a hayride, wiener roast, and a pizza party.

HOMECOMING 1963

Homecoming 1963 was one of the greatest ever. It was the last homecoming at old JC; but this did not dampen its enthusiasm. Miss Geneva Sugarbaker reigned as Queen over the festivities.

Queen Gena

The bonfire was the biggest in the school's history.

A JC cheerleader watches the bonfire as a tiger is burned in effigy.

CAPITOL CAROLLING

The 26th annual Capitol Carolling was truly an awe-inspiring event that ushered in the 1963 Christmas season. The Advanced Choir, Freshmen Singers, Girls' Ensemble, and Varsity Band all participated under the leadership of Mr. Carl Burkel against the magnificent background of the Capitol Rotunda. Soloists were Pat Crowe, Richard Jarrett, Steve Bickel, and Don Gentzsch. Vic Robertson was narrator.

CAPITOL CAROLLING

The Jefferson City Senior High School Art Department, under the direction of Mr. William Raby, spent many long hours creating a fitting atmosphere for the Capitol Carolling. Through their efforts, the Rotunda was transformed into a snowy, Christmas background for the carolers, adding much to the spirit of the concert.

MARCULLUS CORONATION

The annual Marcullus Coronation and Spring Concert were held in the new Senior High Field House. Reigning over it all with sparkle and beauty was our Queen Nancy. The decorations followed a "Missouri" theme with five giant dogwood blossoms arranged on the floor. Their centers were beautifully filled by our queen and her lovely attendants.

Student Council President, Herb Taylor presents Queen Nancy with a dozen long-stem red roses.

The most thrilling moment! Herb crowns Nancy Gaines as 1964 Marcullus Queen.

The choir honors Queen Nancy with an evening of exquisite music.

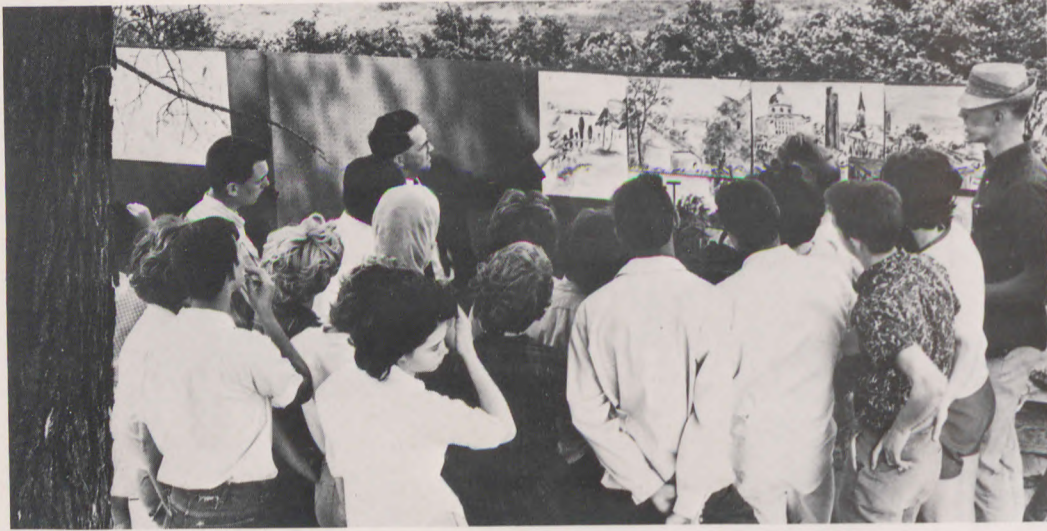

Queen Nancy and her attendants Gloria, Cindy, Carol, and Jan radiate beauty and sparkle on that "enchanted evening". Bill Schultze was the crown bearer and Cindy Goldammer was the flower girl.

SKETCH DAY

Edwin Ellis points out to a group of young artists how he judged their paintings.

Man, what concentration!

Sketch Day this year brought out the young, prospering artists from the city. Mr. Edwin Ellis of Central Missouri State College was the judge. The beautiful sunny day helped the artists produce some very nice pieces.

Well, if you want my opinion . . .

SKETCH DAY

Bill Bonnett appraises a prize-winning painting.

Margaret Mueller apparently didn't win this prize!

PROM

Charade was the theme of the Junior-Senior Prom which was held on May 17, 1964 in the new JC Senior High cafeteria. Approximately 400 persons were in attendance for the evening.

Miss Geneva Sugarbaker, 1963 Homecoming Queen, is escorted in the Grand March by Bob Wilson.

A Grand March was held in honor of the 1964 Marcellus Queen and Her court. Miss Nancy Gaines, queen, is escorted by Cris Sappington.

Right: Everyone is dancing to the music of Don Verne Joseph and his combo.

SPRING PICNICS

EDGARDO FUSTER

Edgardo Fuster was JC's A.F.S. foreign exchange student during the 1963-64 school year. Ed made many friends during the year, and will always live in the hearts of the J.C. students. He was truly an outstanding ambassador from Chile.

SENIOR MEMOIRS

Continually "on the move," the class of '64 entered the halls of J.C. as sophomores led by class officers Herb Taylor, Cathy Quinn, and Susan Frank. We soon asserted ourselves by contributing a cheerleader, Susan Frank, a participant in the Sophomore Pilgrimage, Mary Lichius, and a Marcullus Queen, Carol Maddox.

Keeping in pace our junior year, we again distinguished ourselves in many fields. Phyllis Fenton charmed audiences with her interpretation of Annie in Annie Get Your Gun. Burkhart Kramer, J.C.'s second foreign exchange student, stayed at the home of an outstanding junior, John Lloyd. With a final burst of energy we presented a never-to-be-forgotten prom to the theme of "Cherry Blossom Time." Appropriately our own Susan Frank reigned over it as Marcullus Queen.

Moving on into our senior year with quickened pace, we were led for the second year in a row by our president, Buddy Farmer and by our Student Council president, Herb Taylor. We welcomed into our class Edgardo Fuster, from Chile, J.C.'s third foreign exchange student. This was a year of outstanding accomplishments. The Jays (now fourth in the nation) moved on to another undefeated football season with 48 straight victories. The band distinguished itself in Jackson and again under the guest leadership of Alfred Reed. Reigning over a most successful homecoming was Queen Geneva Sugarbaker, while Bob Wilson triumphantly finished his high school football career by being named All American. Our talent in the field of dramatics showed itself as Diane Hudgins and Hugh Waggoner appeared in The Admirable Crichton and Don't Unplug the Teacher. Moving on to greater fame, Phyllis Fenton again thrilled audiences as Nellie in South Pacific, supported by Pat Crowe as Bloody Mary.

The year was crowned by the "big move" to our new school. Taking advantage of our wonderful facilities, we hosted the State Honor Society convention and were elected State president. Not to break a winning streak, we were elected into the head position at the M.A.S.C. convention in Columbia.

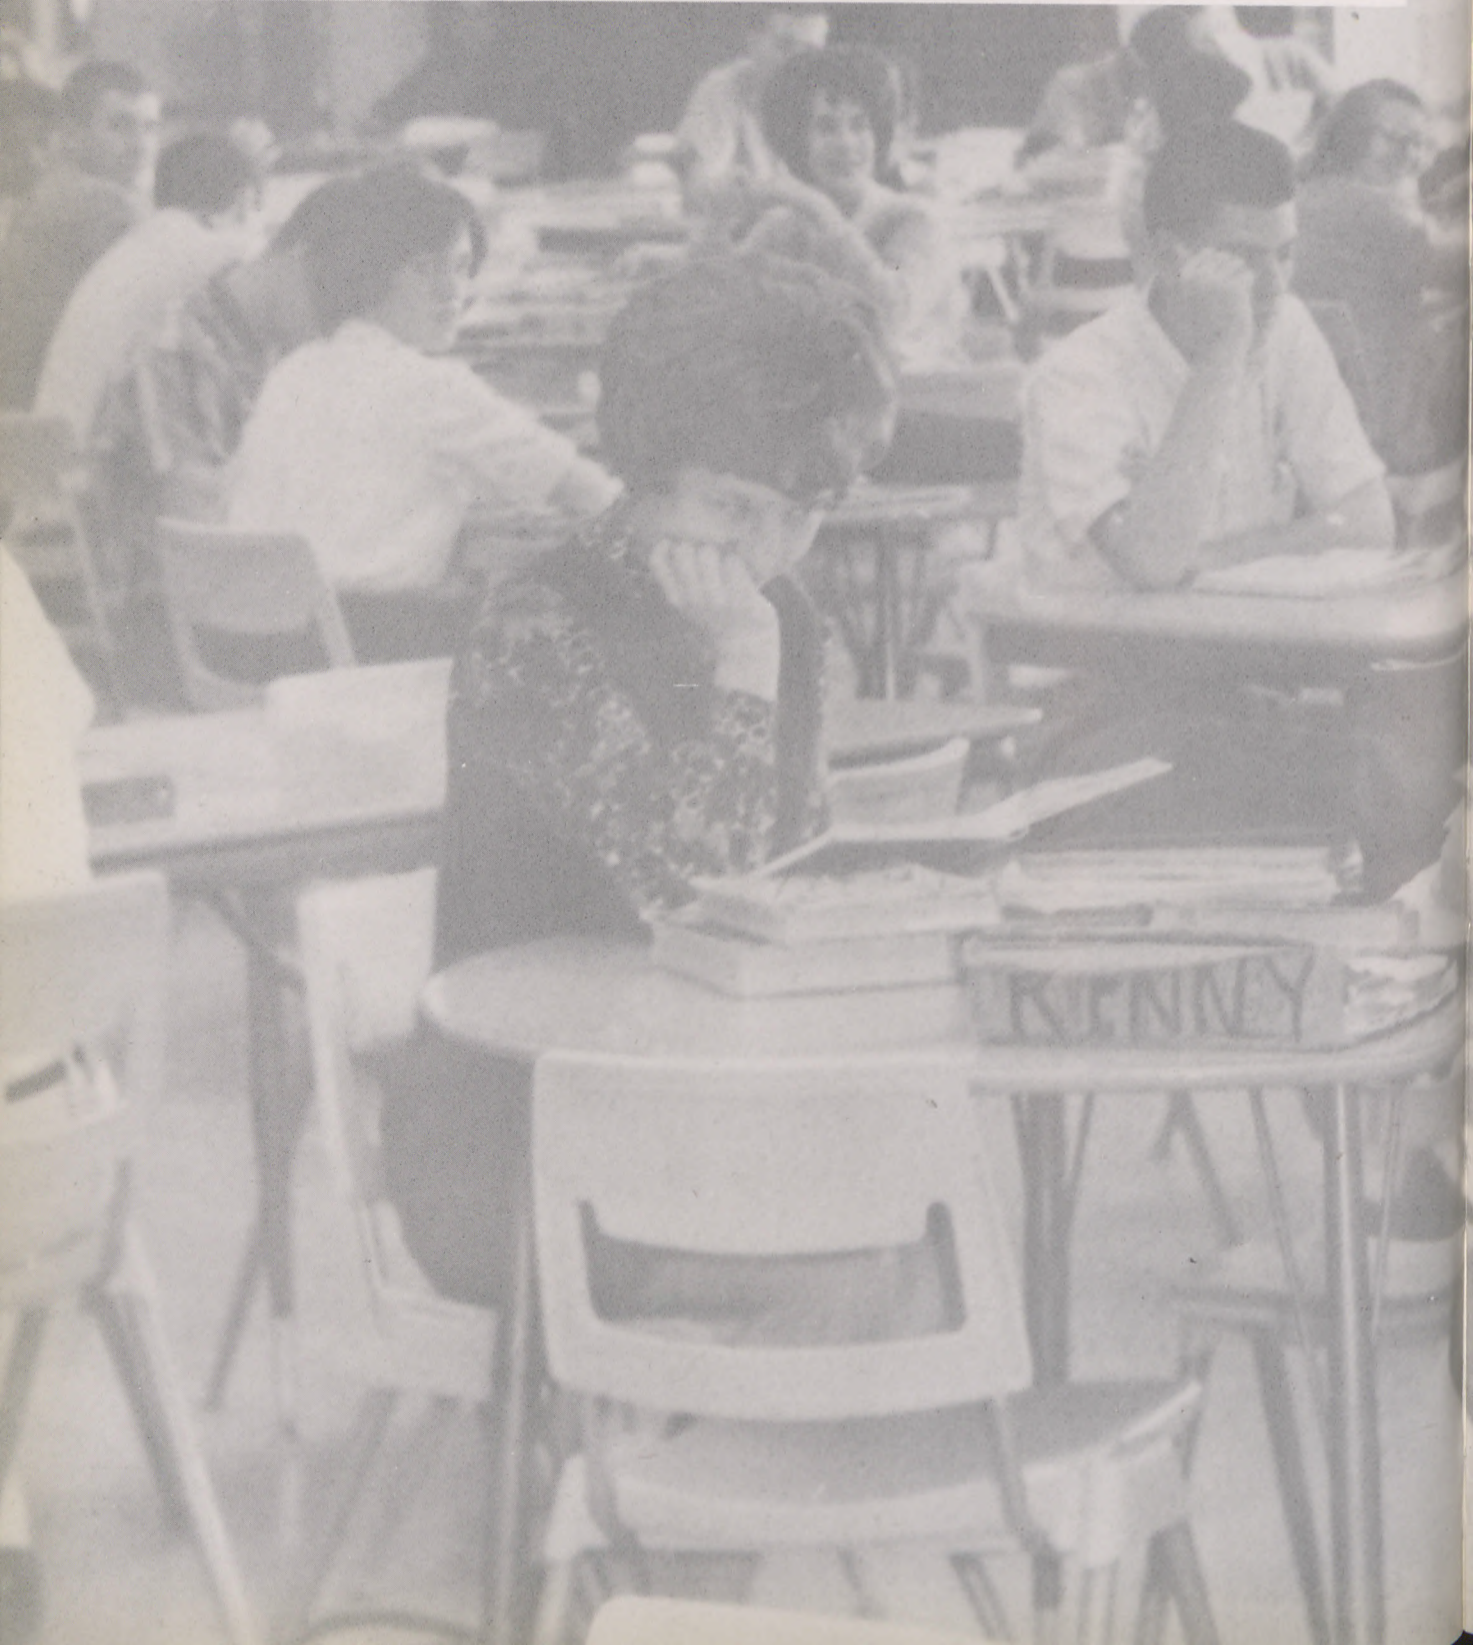

Our basketball season was highlighted by the election of Susan Frank as basketball sweetheart and the dance in our new cafeteria.

Keeping the tradition, our class for the third time contributed the Marcullus Queen, Nancy Gaines.

Moving for the last time through J.C., we ended our high school days with Baccalaureate and Commencement, where Suzanne Jones was named valedictorian, Charlene Mayberry was named salutatorian, and John Lloyd received the All School Service Award. As we 287 seniors move on to greater heights, we leave behind traditions and bring with us memories that will never be forgotten.

TO THE CLASS OF '64 . . .

It's been said as one grows older he is more prone to give advice.

This seems to be a failing of all mankind. So hold on to your graduation caps . . .

There is a law of survival which rules all human endeavors — Improve or Perish!

After graduation you may attend the School of Hard Knocks or the School of Success. You alone will decide and pay the tuition.

Publilius said, "Many receive advice, few profit by it." It's the prayer of the Alumni Association this message will be of benefit in future years.

Every graduate of Jefferson City High School who has a Marcellus still reads it occasionally. Let this page be an inspiration in your future life.

Here are some guidelines . . .

"Just for today I will exercise my soul in three ways:

I will do somebody a good turn, and not get found out.

I will do something I don't want to do — just for exercise.

And today, if my feelings are hurt; I will not let anyone know.

Just for today I will look as well as I can, talk low, be courteous, criticize not one bit, and try not to improve anybody except myself.

Just for today I will have a quiet half-hour by myself for meditation and prayer. During this half-hour
I will try to get a better perspective of my life.

Just for today I will be unafraid;
especially unafraid to enjoy all that is beautiful. And, I will believe as I give, so the world will give to me."

Robert L. Debo Sr.
Class of 1938

Bob, a real
To a real cool guy!
really got yours
personality?
I remember all the fun we had a church when I was religious? Best of luck this year in all the coming years? How fun?

Sharon
Bob,
To the best fly g--- I know. Always remember the fun we had in Explorers.
Tom

Bob

One of the four musketeers. So bad
we had to split up because of church but we can still bum around at school and elsewhere.
